THE INVESTIGATION .- The Board of Aldermen resumed the investigation of the charges against Dr. J. B. Johnson, last night, amid the unabated interest of the large crowd of persons who had assembled to witness the proceedings. The prosecution tailed to prove anything that could be construed as tarnishing the conduct of Dr. Johnson with the taint of dishonesty, and every charge against him was met with an unqualified denial on the part of that gentleman, who stated that they were "untrue in spirit, and incapable of being proved by human testimony." That Dr. Johnson is entirely blameless, so far as the management of the Board of this city this morning. Health is concerned, and unocent of any dereliction of duty was abundantly established, and he was shown to have been an officer faithful to T.; and G. W. Hauxburst, G. W. S., were the public service, and deserving of commenda- present. tion, for the careful and economical discharge of his duties. Dr. Powell, in making the charges, believed them true, and relied upon the records of the Board of Health for their substantiation, but on an examination of the accounts, and ascertaining that he had been misled, by entries, as to the expenses of the small pox hospital and its managemet, which were not borne out by the vouchers, very promptly withdrew all the charges, save one, that of Dr. Johnson's acting as Health Officer, without authority, and made ample apology for the wrong done Dr. Johnson in making the accusations.

ORDINATION. - The services of the ordination of Mr. H. Marvin Wharton, at the Baptist Church, last night, were of an impressive and interesting character. Rev. Dr. Cuthbert, of Washington, preached from Colossians I., 28th: "Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus." The discourse was deeply earnest, betraying the speaker's own rich experience in those solemn duties involved in his subject. He closed with a terse and touching allusion to a preacher who, after bearing the standard of the Cress for twenty years in patience and steady heroism, was told of one person who had professed to be saved through his preaching. He declared that it was enough. The twenty years were not lost, and through the grace of God he was ready for another twenty years, if so be he might save one more soul. The customary "charge to the candidate" was then delivered by Rev. James B. Taylor, of Culpeper, Va. This was replete with encouraging words and useful admonitions. He showed in glowing colors the comfort and joy the minister's calling contains, and with affectionate faithfulness the hardships, the toils, the sacrifices which are inevitable. The predominating characteristic of Mr. Taylor's speaking is an intense earnestness, compounded apparently of a vivid conception and realization of the subject in his own mind, and a yearning desire to impress his hearers to their eternal good. The charge was followed by the Ordaining Prayer by Rev. Mr. Penick, the ministers laying their hands upon the candidate's head, after which he was received by them in the pulpit with the right hand of fellowship. Rev. Mr. Wharton goes to his work in Luray and Front Royal with encouraging prospects of great usefulness.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT. - Yesterday evening, as the freight train from the Manassas Division of the Midland Railroad, was coming around a sharp curve between Manassas and Bull Run that a stewardess was needed of a steamer, and Bridge, the engineer discovered a number of came to New York to apply for the position. railroad spikes laid upon the track. He, at She lost her way during the day, and at last, once, reversed his engine, and every effort was when she attempted to return to Jersey City, made to stop the train, but before the speed became bewildered and wandered aimlessly was checked, and within a few yards of where he saw the obstruction, the engine was thrown from the track, and down an embankment about fifteen feet. The engine lay upon its side, and the tender and one car of stone were also off the track and down the embankment. No one was hurt. The fireman jumped off, but the engineer, Mr. J. H. Watkins, staid upon the engioe until it stopped, and then crawled out and came to the track, and strange to say, did not receive a scratch. The train was in charge of Conductor James Iden. The track was cleared and all trains were passing in about two hours, the mail train due here at 6:20 arriving at 9:10. The obstruction was evidently placed upon the that the police captain could get her to tell her track by some one who understood how he might accomplish his fiendish design, and it is a great pity that he was not caught in the act, so that the law could take its course with him.

THE DISTRICT GRANGE will meet here pursuant to call of S. S. Bradford, Master, August 25th, for business. On the 26th the Master of the State Grange will be present and confer the and had them so marked because she proposed Pomona (5th) degree. On the 27th it is proposed to go down the river to Mount Vernon. Arrangements have been completed by which the railroads leading into the city will issue half fare tickets to delegates and visitors. The hotels have also agreed to reduce their rates. Many officers of the State Grange will be present. Invitations have been extended to delegations from the district and county granges of the State, and one of the largest grange gatherings that has ever been in the State is expected. The Executive Committee of the District Grange will meet on the 24th, at 10 o'clock, to transact business, and an informal meeting will be held that night (24th) of the delegates that have arrived.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. - Persons standing near the intersection of Queen and Henry streets, as the seven o'clock through train from the North was passing there last evening, were horrified at beholding an old man, who was standing upon the track, throw himself immediately in front of the near and rapidly approaching eugine. Among those who witnessed the appalling sight was R. D. Beckley, who lives on a corner of the intersection of the streets referred to, and who, though shocked for an instant, immediately recovered his self-possession, and springing to the prostrate man's rescue, snatched him from the jaws of a terrible death, the pilot of the engine grazing his body as it left the track. The name of the would-be suicide is Daniel Bayless, an old resident of the city, who having lost his mind, has lately made several attempts at self-destruction.

COMING REGATTA. - An adjourned meeting of yachtmen interested in the coming regatta, on the 12th of August, next, was held in Washington last night:

The chair stated that up to the present time no entries had been made in the first class race, but assurances were had from the owners of the Americus and the Ella Treadwell that they would both eater. They had heard nothing from the Alexandria or Baltimore yatchtmen relative to their entering their boats for the race, though he expected they would be heard from at an early day. The steamer Pilot Boy, has been engaged to accompany the yachts on the race, and the yachts already entered are undergoing a thorough overhauling, and by the time of the race will be in perfect trim.

CHRIST CHURCH LECTURE ROOM.-Workmen are now actively engaged in improving Christ Church lecture room. The improvemente will consist of an addition to the east end of the building of twenty seven feet, six feet wider than the present building, and the colargement of the lecture room proper by throwing into it the present vestibule. The present entrance will be closed, and the entrance door be made in the east front. The addition to the building will be divided into three rooms, and be used for the accommodation of the Infant School, the Parish School, and the Bible Society. The work will be completed in two months.

DEATH OF A FORTUNE TELLER -A well known fortune teller of this city, Mrs. Alice Griffin, who lived on West street, near Thomas' soap factory, died yesterday after an illuess of several days. In her death was exhibited another of the many instances of the ruling passion being strong in death, for under the impression that she was still plying her vocation, she died sitting up in bed and engaged in telling the furture of an ideal caller.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING. - A called meeting of the stockholders of the Washington and Ohio Railroad will be held here to-morrow. A large number of the members of the families of the stockholders will, it is expected, avail themselves of the opportunity of the free ride offered to visit this city.

The Outrage on Mrs. Merritt.

NEW YORK, July 22.-The woman who was outraged Tuesday night on the tugboat Mike Norton is about 28 years old, shabbily dressed, but of a refined and delicate appearance. She told the police captain that her name was Louisa Merritt, was wife of Col. Merritt, of the army, and that about three weeks ago she had made her escape from a lunatic asylum near Washington called St. Elizabeth Asylum, but better known as the Government Asylum. She had been confined there by her husband, she said, a year ago last September in order to break her of the habit of eating morphine. At the time mentioned she managed to make her escape through a hole in the wall, and went to Alexandria, Va., on foot. From there she went to Baltimore, and thence to Philadelphia, where she remained for some days. She then sold a heavy gold ring she had in her possession and procured a few necessary articles of clothing. She saw in the Philadelphia newspapers that Detective McDevitt, of Washington, was in the city, and fearing that he might be looking for her, determined to go away at once. She therefore took the train for Jersey City, where she arrived on Tuesday morning. Hoping to find a situation, she looked over the advertisements in the daily papers, and saw about. Near 11 o'clock at night she found herself in South street, and while standing on a corner was approached by a man, who asked her what she was doing there. She told him her story, and he said he was agent of the vessel she was looking for, and told her he would time four other men made their appearance, and the assault was made. The moment she effected her escape she sought the protection of the first patrolman she met, who took her to the police station. It was with great difficulty proceedings in Tweed's case for the present. story, as she said that she did not want her troubles to be made public, and that all she desired was to be allowed to go away in safety. She had appealed to the officer for protection only. Half a dozen coarse cotton handkerchiefs, found in her possession, are marked "C. E. Waldron." She accounts for this by saying that she bought them in Philadelphia, to take that name, as she had a brother-in-law by the name of Charles E. Waldron in Boston. Besides the handkerchiefs a quantity of morphine was found in one of her pockets, and the police captain says he thinks she was under its influence at the time she was brought to the station. He says her manner and language indicate that she is a refined and cultivated lady, though evidently suffering from excessive use of morphine. A medical examination

Wimbledon meeting to-day is small. The match for the Elcho challenge shield is being shot. The ranges in this contest are 800, 900 and 1000 yards. The possible team score at each range is 600 points. The shooting at the 800 yard range is completed. The English eight scored 515, the Irishmen 502, and the Scotchmen 498. The shooting at the second range for the Elcho challenge shield is finished. The Irish eight scored 527, the Scotchmen 511, and the Englishmen 504. A victory for the Irish team is now believed to be certain. The American riflemen are keeping targets for the Irishmen and superintending their shooting. There has been a considerable increase in the attendance of spectators since this morning. More interest in the match is also manifested. London, July 22. - A dispatch just received from Wimbledon says the match for the Elcho challenge shield is half finished. The Irish Maryland Democratic Convention.

BALTIMORE, July 22. - The convention continued in session all night until 4:30 this moruing, when it adjourned to 10:30 a. m. without having reached a yote on any nomination.

BALTIMORE, July 22. - About 1 a. m. Thos. J. Keating, of Queen Anne's county, was in statled as permanent chairman of the convention. Filibustering was continued and motions to adjourn were constantly made and voted down. No rules having been adopted by the convention, discussion on dilatory and other motions took a wide range, and as the hours moved on the debate waxed hotter and hotter. Mr. Freaner, of Washington county, a leader of the Hamilton party, openly charged that bribes of $1,000 in one case and $500 and an office in another had been offered two delegates to vote for Carroll, which was retorted to by Mr. Fenton, a Carroll delegate, saying a Baltimore city delegate had been offered a bribe in money to vote for Hamilton, which was spurned by the delegate. No one supposed this bribe was offered with the knowledge of Mr. Hamilton, nor was any candidate or his advocates responsible for what was done by outsiders. At times the greatest confusion prevailed, and the discussion became so excited that Hon. John Ritchie, the recognized leader of Hamilton's friends, threatened to withdraw from the convention if the majority insisted on forcing a vote at this sitting. At 4:30 a. m. Hon. Stevenson Archer announced that if the Hamilton men would agree to adopt the rules of the last House of Delegates of Maryland, so far as applicable to the convention, the Carroll men would agree to an adjournment until 10:30 a. m. This was agreed to, and the convention adjourned to 10:30 a. m. BALTIMORE, July 22 -- The convention was called to order at 10:50 a. m. A resolution was adopted referring all resolutions relative to platform or other subjects without debate to a committee on resolutions, which committee was named by the several county and city delegations. Mr. Downs, of Caroline, moved that in accordance with the understanding had previous to adjournment this morning the convention now proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Governor. Hon. Stevenson Archer moved as a substitute that Levin Woolford, of Somerset, be declared the unanimous choice of the convention as its nominee for Comptroller of the Treasury. Mr. A. P. Gorman, of Howard, appealed to Mr. Archer to carry out in good faith the understanding of this morning and to withdraw his substitute. That understanding was that on assembling this morning the convention would proceed to nominate candidates in regular order, which was, first, a candidate for Governor. Mr. Seth, of Talbot, said his understanding accorded with that of Mr. Gorman, that the nominations be made in regular order, beginning with the Governor. Mr. Archer said such was not his understanding, (and he made the motion,) as to the order of nominating, but as other gentlemen differed with him he withdrew his substitute. A motion to proceed to nominate for Governor was carried. Henry E Wooten, of Howard, nominated Hon. John Lee Carroll, of Howard.

BALTIMORE, July 22. - A communication from Gov. Groome, to the President of the Convention, stating that he was no longer a candidate for Governor, was read. Hon. John Ritchie, of Frederick, nominated Hon. Wm. T. . Hamilton, of Washington. The nominations were declared closed, and Mr. Carroll, was nominated on the first vote, receiving 60, and Mr. Hamilton receiving 50. Mr. Carroll's nomination was then made unanimous. Levin Woolford, of Somerset, was nominated by acclamation for Comptroller of the Treasury.

BETHEL ACADEMY .- We notice from the catalogue of Bethel Academy, in Fauquier co. that a change has been made which places the discipline and course of instruction under the control of Mr. Wm. W. Smith, who is personally known to many of our citizens, and more widely as the son of the late Prof. Richard M. Smith. Mr. Smith has a reputation as a strict disciplinarian, as well as an able teacher, and we feel assured that any defect in discipline which may have existed heretofore will be corrected under his administration. Major A. G. Smith, the founder of the institution, to whose ability and enterprise its success has been so largely due, still continues as Superintendent and Instructor, and the corps of teachers is strengthened by the addition of Maj. T Towson Smith, a graduate of Hampden Sydney College, and a teacher of experience. We see among the testimonials strong endorsements from Profs. Gilde sleeve, Peters, Smith and Minor, of the Un.v. of Va., and many other prominent educators and patrons based upon actual experience. Commended by the highest educational authorities in our State, and offering peculiar advantages. Bethel Academy may reasonably expect to continue its remarkable career of usefulness and success.
